Producer's LETTER

Little did I know what I was taking on when I became Producer of Gang Show '96, our 43rd production. My phone has been red hot on most evenings. On some nights I have crept to bed in the wee small hours after a production meeting wondering, 'Why I am doing it?'

Tonight's production makes all this effort worth while. Thank you for supporting our show. As you read this programme and enjoy the 14 items we are staging, remember that it is the end product of four months of frenetic rehearsal and activity.

Our Gang of over 100 youngsters and leaders have joined forces to put on a show which will indicate to you just how much talent there is in Chester District. They have given up much of their spare time whilst, at the same time, keeping up their regular Scouting commitments.

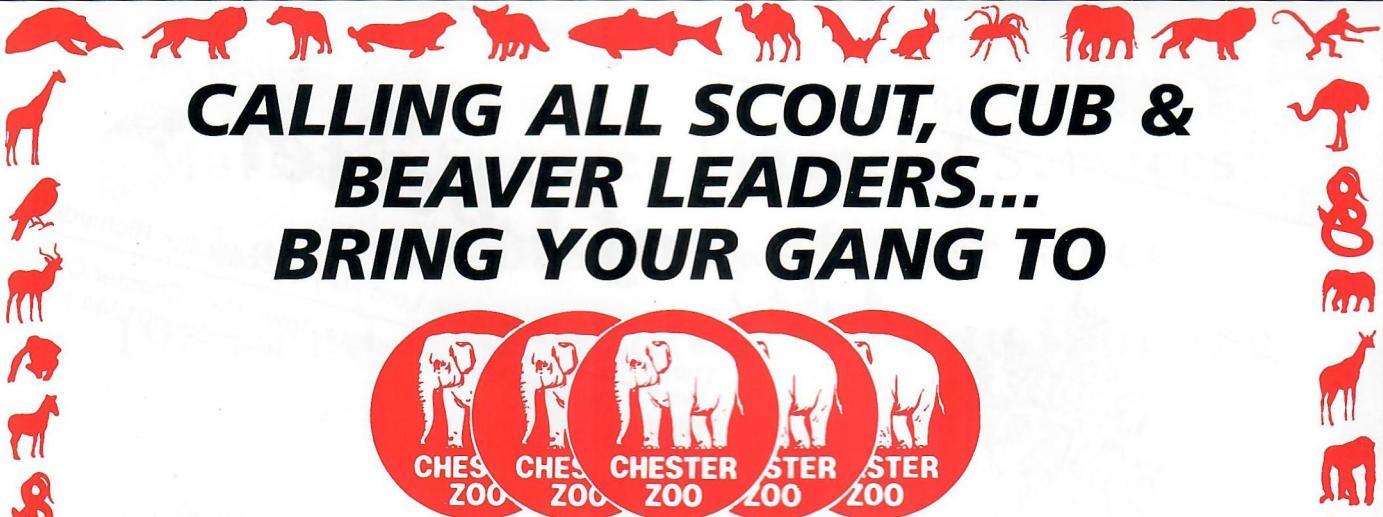

Gang Show involves tremendous team spirit. It also entails hard work, frustration, but above all, fun. New friends have been made and old friendships renewed. Everyone has to work as a team. There is no place for prima donnas in our show. Everyone's strengths have been used to bring it to the stage.

Gang Show is a 'Great Great Game' and a wonderful experience for all. This is what Scouting is about, particularly Gang Show. My thanks go to all the Gang for their support and trust in me. Well, enough of me, all you need to do now is sit back in your seats as the curtain rises and let the members of Chester District Scout Gang Show entertain you.

1951

A Party from the 8th and 13th Chester groups visit London, and go to the London Gang Show. They are inspired!

1953

A Gang from those two groups, totalling 112, stage the first Scoutabout in the Cathedral Refectory with help from parents and friends.

1954

Billy Brickland and his band join the Gang. Bill Cooper sells the first interval ice creams!

1955

The 1st Upton joined the Gang. Bill Cooper as house manager, organises the 2nd Chester and the 1st Christleton Scouts as "Front of House"

1956

We move into the Royalty Theatre to play the pre-panto week. Lord and Lady Leverhulme attend our guest night. We are now a District Show.

1965

We are delighted to welcome our President His Grace The Duke Of Westminster, accompanied by The Duchess. They come backstage after the performance to talk to the Gang.

1966

Sadly, the Royalty Theatre closes and we move to the ABC cinema for a January production. Love St. school is available for much needed dressing room space, but the weather is kind to us!

1968

The very big cinema auditorium is difficult to fill, so we look for a new home. This is the year of the opening of the Gateway Theatre.

1969

A landmark year! We move to the Gateway and... Girls join the Gang for the first time, 12 in a Gang totalling 143.

1971

This was the two shows year; one in January and one in December.

This was the year of the three-day week and power cuts, but we survived. We also celebrate our 21st year with a visit from the Chief, Sir William and Lady Gladstone, who come backstage to talk to the Gang. We have a special message from Ralph.

1973

The year of our biggest Gang, totalling 175. We need extra dressing room space so we use the empty Mezzanine floor in the market.

1976

We entertain our MP Mr. (later Sir) Peter Morrison.

1978

This year sees Bill Brickland's 26th and final Scoutabout.

1979

Keith Musselle takes over as Executive Producer and Colin Parfitt picks up the conductor's baton.

1980

Ralph Reader dies and we pay our tribute the best way we can - on the stage.

1982

No theatre... No show!

1988

Four members of the Scoutabout Gang represent Chester as members of the cast of "The Gang's all here" Diamond Jubilee Show in the Wimbledon Theatre.

1992

Our M.P. Gyles Brandreth came to see the show.

1993

It couldn't have been too bad because he came again!

1994

Jean Profitt, Lilian Edmunds, Eric Wilson, Geoff Morris and Gerald Roose between them put in 165 years service to Scoutabout. That's dedication!

Towards the FUTURE

This is a forward to the 43rd show, which nearly didn't take place. After 42 shows, the majority of which were produced by Roy Fisher and his team, it was very much a case of, "Where do we go from here?" In practice, a successor to Roy, willing to take on this, and possibly many other successive shows, able to supply the commitment and ride the pressure, had to be found. In addition to this many members of the team, who had served well and loyally over the years, were passing from the scene, or looking to hanging up their thespian woggles. Worst of all, there loomed a large chasm between what it cost us to stage the show and the money coming in.

By about September 1995 our new producer Matthew Davies was found and after many supportive words, slaps on the back, and pints of strong ale, he felt equal to the task. There still remained however, the empty cash box and some "twitchy" would-be supporters. The only solution seemed to be to "think big" and find a well endowed good fairy.

As in most traditional shows, (or in pantomimes at least,) in the nick of time one such did appear, without it must be said the apocryphal rubbing of the magic lamp.

When all seemed lost, Marks and Spencer Financial Services agreed to support our revamped show with great generosity. Their financial support and publicity expertise has been personified by Helen Terry of their marketing department. She has been unstinting in her efforts to such an extent that it appeared that she might even "go native" and join the gang!

All this support and effort has made it possible for the show to be completely remodelled, with better equipment and services, and what it is hoped will be self evident, a three fold increase in the costume budget. The Gang has now returned to its old strength of about 100, due mainly to Matthew and his assistants going out and literally bringing in the cast. Many old names are sadly missing from the team, but many new and some old ones still remain. All you need to do now is watch and see if it has all been worth it.

Producer to Assistant Producer:

“Just in case it all goes wrong, have you booked our flight to South America?”

Did You KNOW...?

Matthew Davies - Producer

Matthew has taken over the "hot seat" from Roy Fisher. He has passed through the mill of Cubs, Scouts and Venture Scouts since 1977. After a period as an ASL he is now AVSL of the 40th Chester Venture Scouts. He was press-ganged into the 1989 show and became part of the production team in 1994/1995. As new Producer he faces his toughest assignment, but to use a well worn phrase, "You ain't seen nothin' yet!"

Louise Roffey - Assistant Producer

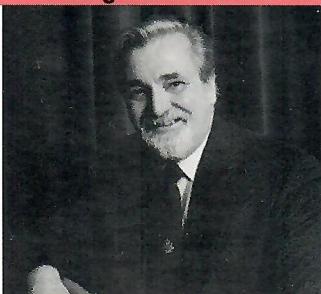

Louise came into Scouting via Gang Show. Originally from Yorkshire, she was pianist for Goole Gang Show before coming to Chester College in 1990 to undertake Theatre Studies. Goole's loss was Chester's gain and Louise was recruited by Roy Fisher to bring her piano along to our party! Having appeared on stage in 1995, she is now supporting Matthew Davies, our new producer.

Richard Clarke - Assistant Producer

Richard is a Cestrian, having joined the movement in 1976. He became Scout Leader of the 48th Chester in 1987, after which he served as ADC Scouts from 1990 to 1993. As a glutton for punishment, Richard also trod the boards in local pantomime, having appeared in Gang Show since 1979. He is now assistant producer with special responsibility for the sketch "funny factor".

Eric Plenderleath - Gang Co-ordinator

Eric, a Geordie by birth, was in Newcastle Gang Show as far back as 1947. He came to Chester around 1969 and restarted Scouting in Tarvin. He was District Commissioner from 1975-1981, after which he joined the show in various roles, such as Assistant Producer, Business Committee Chairman and Gang Co-ordinator. He even found time to appear on stage!

Colin Parfitt - Musical Director

Colin was born and bred in the Wrexham area where still at school, he obtained his first diploma in music. He has worked professionally with Lenny Henry and David Copperfield, to mention but two. He is currently a music teacher at Blacon High School, from where he draws some of his musicians. Their school band performed last year for the Prince of Wales. Colin took over as maestro 16 years ago when the long serving Bill Brickland retired due to ill health. He has been Musical Director for many local operatic societies and seems to be digging in for a long stint with Gang Show.

Geoff Morris - Stage Director

Geoff joined the Scouts when he was about 12, but he really made his mark as a stalwart of the old Chester District Rover Crew. He appeared in various shows at the Royalty Theatre and then at the ABC. He came to fame in his present role in 1973 via his work at the ABC under Charlie Jones. He is now much sought after by many local societies as the most professional amateur Stage Director in the business.

Brian Dickinson - Stage Manager

Brian was drawn into the movement by his son. He came into the show 15 years ago after becoming a Scout Leader with the 47th Chester group. He has appeared on stage and has been stage manager for about five years. He currently runs the Crusader Venture Unit and regularly helps with other amateur Gateway shows.

Brian Wilkes - Scenery Design

Brian is a carpenter by trade and was also recruited into the movement when his son joined the Scouts. He was "volunteered" to help with scenery and also to be part of the cast about ten years ago. He has been scenery designer and builder for the past six years. Brian says that he likes to build it all alone and then let his assistants paint it.

Vicky Fellows - Wardrobe

Vicky is another ex-patriate, this time from Coventry, where she was a Cub Scout Leader. In 1985 she came to Chester, and joined the 40th Scout group as an ACSL. She has been involved with the show, on and off the stage, since 1986. She now takes over from the redoubtable Lil Edmunds as a wardrobe mistress with a mission.

Gerald Roose - Sound

Gerald joined Scouting in 1948 with the 8th Chester group but his predicted membership of six weeks has now stretched to nearly 50 years. His first appearance in Gang Show was in the Cathedral Refectory in 1953. There then followed various roles in sketches and theatres up to the present. However, having provided sound over the years for all sorts of local drama groups and societies, he has deserted the stage for the department of funny noises at the back!

CAPENHURST. ENRICHING OUR FUTURE IN NUCLEAR ENERGY.

If you've ever wondered what we do at Capenhurst, allow us to enlighten you about uranium enrichment, which is all part of making fuel for the latest generation of nuclear reactors.

The enrichment process is carried out using highly advanced centrifuge technology, which we've developed over the years in conjunction with Dutch and German companies, in a partnership known as URENCO.

BNFL is part owner of URENCO, and also a world leader in decommissioning technology. All of which enriches our future in nuclear energy, and plays a part in enriching the local economy.
