MORNING WILL COME by Ralph Reader.

Morning will come and the shadows depart
Dawning will bring us a song in our heart.
On the horizon a glow will appear,
Warming the day with a bountiful cheer.
Morning will come and the sun will arise,
Lighting the darkness to open our eyes.
Troubles may find us, we all must have some ;
All will be well for the morning will come.

YOU'LL GET ALONG VERY WELL by Ralph Reader.

Just put a spurt on and 'go to town'
When all your castles come tumbling down.
If you put a smile on instead of a frown
Then you'll get along very well.
When you can see on the window pane
Old stormy weather has called again.
Just stand up and laugh at the wind and the rain
And you'll get along very well.
Fall in line—There's a sun that'll light up your story
Rise and Shine—What about a look at early morning glory ?
Don't start to holler when things are wrong,
Don't get the wind-up if nights are long
Just lift up your voices and break into song
And you'll get along very well, sir,
You'll get along darn well.

DON'T BE AFRAID OF THE RAIN by Ralph Reader.

Don't be afraid of the rain, boy,
So when you see it coming down again
Don't be ashamed of the sun show'rs
We've got to have them ev'ry now and then.
Why let it matter and be mad as a hatter when you hear pitter patter in the Row ?
Don't diddle daddle, take your shoes off and paddle in the puddles down below, so
Don't be afraid of the rain, my boy,
It's wonderful what it can do.

TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT OF ALL NIGHTS. by Ralph Reader.

We're gonna shout out again
The Gang is about again
And that means we're hitting the high.
We're keyed up and set and ready below
Like greyhounds at the leash we're waiting
Straight in for the go.
It's gotta be wonderful
It's gotta be marvellous.
Ev'ry light a light of delights.
Get in the swim boys you're ready and fit.
Make it a bull's eye, a rollicking hit
And long before the curtain falls you'll have to admit
To-night is the night of all nights.

Interlude :—

Stride on to glory boys, we'll go following through.
Riding in the clear, straight from the starting year,
Nineteen-thirty-two.
This is our story boys, we're still writing it down.
Flying high, we are, for we know we are Still the top of the town.

IT'S A GREAT GREAT, GAME by Ralph Reader.

Get out and come in boys, we're waiting for you
And you'll be delighted you came.
To enjoy the joys of the Scouting Boys.
It's a Great, Great Game.
The thrill of a lifetime is waiting for you,
It's time you were staking a claim.
Let the rafters ring and your heart will sling
It's a Great, Great Game.
You play on a wonderful journey beyond the realms of Mars.
Ev'ry night on your way's alight with a million
lucky stars,
You gotta get in boys, and take it from me, in putting your worry to shame,
You will learn the break of the left hand shake,
It's a Great, Great Game.
