I believe it is important to recognise the valuable contribution, which the Gang Show makes to the cultural life of our City and it gives me great pleasure to be invited to write the foreword to this year's production.

The world has changed much since those early days in the 1950s, yet with change there has been the continuity of the Gang Show. I believe this is due to the values and standards set by the scouting movement which provide a framework that offers a sense of purpose and direction for young people.

It is a privilege to be able to acknowledge the commitment and dedication of those who help to shape and influence the lives of young people at the same creating friendships which can last a lifetime. Congratulations and best wishes.

Producer's LETTER

Hello everybody,

Hasn't the last year gone quickly? It doesn't seem twelve months since the Millennium Celebrations, never mind the ones due this year!

Well, here we are in 2001 and yet another show is upon us. This time we have a lot of new expertise on board; new directors and choreographers, not forgetting of course our faithful old retainers such as Bob the Builder, Acoustical Ged and Geoff, scourge of the stage and Lord of the Flies, to mention but three. Hopefully, we go on from strength to strength.

This year we will be venturing further into Europe with a touch of Spanish flavour, Olé! (Try the coffee for a start). Next, over the Big Pond to the US of A, then down to the Millennium Doom, (sorry Dome), ending up in the dark depths of Hades to meet the devils, (this is where I come in).

Now, I must let you into our little secret, left over from last year. We have been assessed and presented with the Scout Association's quality standard for Gang Shows worldwide, The Red Scarf, which you will see being worn by Gang and team Members on stage and around the Theatre. I would like to say a big "Thank you" and "Well done" to everybody involved and who made it all possible.

Finally, here we go again. I don't want to spoil the surprises in store, so sit back, brace yourselves and please enjoy yet another of our exciting instalments! Chester Gang Show surges into the 21st Century, (at least we hope so).

From the DISTRICT COMMISSIONER

One of the items in the last production of Chester Gang Show contained the line "A District Commissioner's lot is not a happy one". Well, I have to contradict that, sorry Matthew. "Why?" you may ask, for the simple reason that I was more than happy to learn of the success of the show and the gaining of the Red Scarf.

This recognition is not just for the Gang, producers and directors, but for all those associated in any way with the show. Where would we be without those who make the tea, sew on the buttons, move and make scenery? What about getting to your seat, and who sold you the ticket? So I would just like to say "Bravo!" to all those involved in the show last year and "Congratulations!" I myself, am proud to be able to say that I played my part and I am sure that all of you who helped in any way feel the same.

And so we move on to 2001: the Gang has been practising hard for many weeks to bring you this year's show. I have to ask myself, "Which countries will we be visiting this year?" It is not often that you can go to the theatre and come away saying that you were treated to a visit to France, America and the South Pacific all in one night!

Will it be China or Australia, who knows? What I do know is that, from the smiles I have seen at the rehearsals and the determination and dedication put into this production, it will be as professional and entertaining as it could possibly be.

"Good luck" to the Gang. "Well done" to the 'team', both in front and behind the scenes, and thank you for coming to watch Gang Show 2001. Sit back, relax and really enjoy.

Glyn Jones
District Commissioner
